February 2015

Dear friend of the Olympia FOR,

The Olympia FOR is unique among our region's non-profit organizations.
No other all-volunteer grassroots organization conducts such a wide variety of activities for peace, nonviolence, and social justice – and mobilizes resources to work on them in so many ways:

- Our peace vigils every Wednesday from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. in Sylvester Park and every Friday from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. at Percival Landing consistently lift up our values of peace, social justice and nonviolence. They attract attention and welcome new people into the movement.
- Our newsletters inform people about our many activities and many issues related to making peace, achieving social justice, protecting the climate, and so forth. Our newsletters also describe the topics of our TV programs and publicize compatible organizations' activities.
- Our website (www.olympiafor.org) provides information about our activities and substantive information about nonviolence, the climate crisis, the death penalty, and other issues. You can read our newsletters there and watch more than 100 of our past TV programs there.
- Our "Confronting the Climate Crisis" is a local leader in working to protect our climate. We meet monthly (6:30 pm on the 3rd Wednesday each month at the Olympia Center, 222 Columbia Street NW, downtown) and organize a wide variety of activities, including speakers, rallies, interactions with governments, direct actions, and more.
- Our "Committee for Alternatives to the Death Penalty" has worked for decades to educate and persuade local people and statewide governmental decision-makers.
- We organize, sponsor and co-sponsor speaking engagements and other special events about a variety of issues (foreign policy, climate, nuclear weapons, death penalty, and so forth).

- Our TV programs allow thoughtful guests to inform the public about substantive issues. Watch our current programs on TCTV cable channel 22 in Thurston County (www.tctv.net). Watch more than 100 of our recent programs on your computer through www.olympiafor.org. Topics from January 2014 through February 2015 are: "Living Meaningful Lives," "Criminal Justice System's Racial Disparities: Problems & Solutions," "Preventing Humanity's Suicide," "Strengthen Democracy with a Community Rights Ordinance (CRO)," "The Death Penalty Is Unjust and Is Being Abolished," "Igniting a Grassroots Compassion Movement," "A Vietnam Veteran Now Works for Peace," "Militarism Is the Problem, Not the Solution," "'TPP: A 'Free Trade' Scam Much Worse than NAFTA," "Palestine's Realities with Updates," "Our Best Values Lead to a Better Future," "Restoring the Deschutes Estuary to its Natural Flow," "Climate Change: From Despair + Denial to Courage + Action," and "Human Trafficking: Problems and Solutions."

If you like what the Olympia FOR is doing, we warmly encourage you to support it.

The Olympia FOR does not charge dues or have paid staff. We rely on volunteer labor and voluntary contributions. We trust that each person will help in whatever ways they can.

Please consider pledging quarterly or monthly. Some donors express their support for our work by spreading their gifts out quarterly or monthly in order to achieve a more generous yearly total. Contributions to Olympia FOR are tax-deductible as allowed by law.

Thanks to everyone for helping the Olympia FOR work for social justice, nonviolence and peace!

Sincerely, The Olympia FOR Steering Committee:
*Rozanne Rants, Andrew Burgess, Glen Anderson, Chris Carson,
 Bourtai Hargrove, Kerri Griffis, Holly Gwinn Graham, Jay Kelly,
